Medical information

Any medical information referred to in or through this website is presented for information purposes only. None of the materials on this website are intended to constitute professional medical advice, nor are they intended to replace consultation with a qualified medical practitioner. We do not recommend or endorse any specific test, product, procedure, service or information that may be mentioned, linked or referred to. Ideas for Ears is not responsible or liable for any consequences relating directly or indirectly to any action or inaction you take based on the information, services or other material posted to this website.

Information on disability discrimination

Any information on disability discrimination referred to in or through this website is presented for information purposes only. It is not, nor is it intended to constitute legal advice nor is it intended to replace consultation with a qualified legal practitioner. Ideas for Ears is not responsible or liable for any consequences relating directly or indirectly to any action or inaction you take based on the information, services or other material posted to this website.

Information about products

Any product information referred to in or through this website is for information purposes only. It is not, nor is it intended to constitute professional advice regarding what is appropriate for your needs. Information and/or reviews for products on this website are provided as a guide to assist you in making your own informed choice. Ideas for Ears is not responsible or liable for any consequences relating directly or indirectly to any action or inaction you take based on the product reviews found on this website.

Use of the Rate & Review tool

Ideas for Ears has designed the Rate & Review tool to encourage the sharing of experiences about the way people can hear, listen, communicate and participate when visiting or using facilities or services made available to the general public. The reviews and ratings left on the site are focused on individual experience and we hope they are a helpful way to inform you. However, we cannot guarantee that the information shared on the site is factual or accurate.

We try to discourage false reviews by asking people to abide by our Rules for Submitting Content. We also make it possible for service providers to add their own comments to correct or clarify any that they perceive as being incorrect. Those who leave reviews are asked to log in (with identifiable information) and this helps to create accountability.

We provide a moderation service and will and do remove offensive posts. Please be aware, however, that we are not able to filter for accuracy. Should you feel a post is offensive or inaccurate, please inform us at info@ideasforears.org.uk and we will endeavor to check or flag the posting in question.
